

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT TACOMA

REALNETWORKS, INC., a Washington corporation,

C04-0511FDB

Plaintiff,

VS

MLB ADVANCED MEDIA, L.P., a Delaware corporation,

ORDER REGARDING DISCOVERY AND DEPOSITIONS

Defendant.

It is ORDERED that:

1. DISCOVERY. All discovery matters should be resolved by agreement if possible. If a ruling is needed on any discovery question, counsel should timely file a written motion. Upon proffer, only emergency rulings shall be expedited through a telephone conference call with the court at (253) 593-6307.

2. DEPOSITIONS. Depositions will be conducted in compliance with the following rules.

(a) Examination. If there are multiple parties, each side should ordinarily designate one attorney to conduct the main examination of the deponent, and any questioning by other counsel on that side should be limited to matters not previously

1 covered.

2 (b) Objections. The only objections that should be raised at the depositions are 3 those involving a privilege against disclosure, or some matter that may be remedied if 4 presented at the time (such as the form of the question or the responsiveness of the answer),
5 or that the question seeks information beyond the scope of discovery. Objections on other
6 grounds are unnecessary and should be avoided. All objections should be concise and must 7 not suggest answers to, or otherwise coach, the deponent. Argumentative interruptions will 8 not be permitted.

9 (c) Directions Not to Answer. Directions to the deponent not to answer are 10 improper. Advice not to answer may be appropriate on the ground of privilege or to 11 enable a party or deponent to present a motion to the court or special master for 12 termination of the deposition on the ground that it is being conducted in bad faith or in 13 such a manner as unreasonably to annoy, embarrass or oppress the party or the deponent, 14 or for appropriate limitations upon the scope of the deposition (e.g., on the ground that the 15 line of inquiry is not relevant nor reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of 16 admissible evidence). When a privilege is claimed, the witness should nevertheless answer 17 questions relevant to the existence, extent or waiver of the privilege, such as the date of the 18 communication, who made the statement in question, to whom and in whose presence the 19 statement was made, other persons to whom the contents of the statement have been 20 disclosed, and the general subject matter of the statement.

21 (d) Responsiveness. Witnesses will be expected to answer all questions directly 22 and without evasion, to the extent of their testimonial knowledge, unless they choose to 23 follow the advice of counsel not to answer.

24 (e) Private consultation. Private conferences between deponents and their 25 attorneys during the actual taking of the deposition are improper, except for the purpose of 26 datelining whether a privilege should be asserted. Unless prohibited by the court for good 27 cause shown, such conferences may, however, be held during normal recesses and

1 adjournments.

2 (f) Conduct of Examining Counsel. Examining counsel will refrain from asking
3 questions he or she knows to be beyond the legitimate scope of discovery, and from undue
4 repetition.

5 (g) Courtroom Standard. All counsel and parties should conduct themselves in 6 deposition with the same courtesy and respect for the rules that are required in the 7 courtroom during trial.

8 3. RESPONSIBILITY OF PLAINTIFF'S COUNSEL. This order is issued at 9 the outset of the case, and a copy is delivered by the clerk to counsel for plaintiff.

10 Plaintiff's counsel (or plaintiff if pro se) is directed to deliver a copy of this order to each 11 other party within ten (10) days after receiving notice of that party's appearance.

12 DATED this 11th day of March 2004.
